

Recommended Interview Topics

- American medicine and how it changed from the inside
- Emergency medicine, urgent care, and the front lines of patient care
- Healthcare burnout and compassion fatigue
- Public trust in medicine and science
- Vaccines, pseudoscience, and the consequences of medical misinformation
- Public health and what happens when trust breaks down
- Access to healthcare and the limits of the system (without universal healthcare)
- September 11 and its aftermath from a NYC paramedic's perspective
- The opioid epidemic from the front lines of emergency care
- The patient-provider relationship and how it has changed
- Healthcare burnout and the human cost of caring for others
- From emergency medicine to Collectible Science Fiction: building a business from a lifelong love of books
- Writing American Triage: turning trauma, absurdity, frustration into memoir